Water investors, do your due diligence

At the World Water Forum in 2000, Nestlé and other drinking water businesses succeeded in having language regarding access to water officially downgraded from a “right” to a “need”. In a 2005 documentary, former Nestlé Chairman and CEO Peter Brabeck-Letmathe dismissed NGOs’ push to deem water a public right as an “extreme solution”, claiming that it was “a foodstuff like any other”...
