

IMAS 10th Regulatory Forum

Speaker:

Christian Schneider,
CEO and co-founder,
bluesheets

Christian Schneider started his career in investment banking and corporate finance consulting in Europe, before stepping into venture building with Learning Rocket Internet in Singapore, managing business intelligence with Lazada and foodpanda, then co-founding a Singapore-based foodtech startup where he met bluesheets' present COO and Co-founder, Clare Leighton. His strong foundation in the financial sector and intricate expertise in AI and machine learning now culminate in his present role as CEO and co-founder of bluesheets – an AI-powered workflow automation solution that has revolutionized data processing for businesses of all sizes with its product fileAI.
