

EDITORIAL

Parting of the ways?

The article on private equity in this issue may lead people to conclude that the asset class is in poor shape. The figures are there after all. But it's a situation that's actually long overdue. An asset class can't keep growing forever without reaching a correction at some point...

Featured stories from the November 2024 issue of Asia Asset Management

- A passive approach to investing in bonds
- Scuppered deal raises questions
- ESG, AI and ETFs in focus at annual Taiwan roundtable
- Private equity in Asia Pacific
- Interview with Fangfang Chen, head of Asia Pacific at BNY
- A new landscape
- Islamic finance set to grow
- Malaysia casts zero tax lure to attract family wealth
- Singapore asset management poll bolsters global credentials

Latest News

Japan's GPIF incurs investment loss on Japanese stock selloff

| 5 November 2024

Pensions: GPIF's annualised investment return since inception was 4.26% as of September

France's Amundi promotes Florian Neto to head of investment for Asia

| 5 November 2024

Going Places: Neto was most recently head of investment for Hong Kong and Taiwan, and Asia multi asset head

Malaysia pension fund KWAP names chief strategy and services officer

| 5 November 2024

Going Places: Nazaiful Affendi Zainal Abidin was KWAP's head of portfolio strategy and research before the promotion

Korea's Teachers' Pension opens tender for agency to trade foreign stocks, ETFs

| 4 November 2024

Market Access: Tender applicants must have a net capital ratio of at least 150%

As per the Guidance on Direct Marketing issued by the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data in Hong Kong which took effect on April 1, 2013, we would like to inform you that we intend to continue sending you promotional emails such as newsletters, new promotions and product updates. If you do not wish to receive such emails, please contact us at news@asiaasset.com. For enquiries please contact us at (852) 2547-7331.