Commercial Real Estate Overview

Remi Colinmaire

Co-Founder and Managing Partner of Polaris Investments and Partner at Virage-Viager

Remi has been an independent investor and entrepreneur since 2014 and has been working on various projects related to real estate structured finance in Europe and in the US.

He is co-founder and managing partner of Polaris Investments, a private equity real estate platform that exclusively invests in US real estate transactions. He is also partner in Virage-Viager, a Paris-based real estate company that is a pioneer and expert in mutualizing home reversion contracts into investable fund vehicles built for large financial institutions.

In parallel to these personal, entrepreneurial ventures, he has been lecturing real estate finance to MSc of Finance students at ESSEC business school.

Full-time, he has been an investment professional for nearly 25 years who held several positions in both sell side and buy side firms. Currently he is the Head of Options Trading at Caladan, a digital assets proprietary trading company. Previously he was portfolio manager at global macro multi-billion dollar funds, at Astignes Capital Asia from 2021 to 2024 and at Alphadyne Asset Management from 2012 to 2014.

Prior to that, he was co-founder and portfolio manager at RSR Capital in Singapore from 2009 to 2012. He also was managing director at Goldman Sachs from 2005 to 2009 in charge of equity derivatives trading in Japan and in Europe.

Remi holds an MSc in Quantitative Finance from ENSAE, France, and an MBA level degree from EDHEC Business School, France.
