

Key Global Asset Management Policy Trends and the Implications for Asia

Speaker

Tracey Wingate

Chief Global Affairs Officer,
Investment Company Institute

Tracey Wingate is the Chief Global Affairs Officer at ICI, where she oversees all aspects of ICI's international policy and regulatory engagement. She began her career at ICI as Chief of Staff to ICI President and CEO Eric J. Pan. With more than 16 years of experience as a financial regulator, she has a long track record of successfully addressing complex regulatory challenges. Before joining ICI, Wingate served as associate director of the Office of International Affairs (OIA) at the US Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC), leading the CFTC's international engagements and providing strategic advice and counsel to the CFTC chair and commissioners on an array of complex domestic and international policy initiatives. In this capacity, Wingate helped lead the successful negotiations on cross-border equivalence for US central counterparties. For her work at the CFTC, she was awarded the Chairman's award for outstanding service. Previously, she served as special counsel in the CFTC's Division of Clearing and Risk and as a senior trial attorney in the Division of Enforcement. She began her legal career at Arnold & Porter LLC in Washington, DC. Wingate is a graduate of the University of Virginia and Tulane University School of Law.