

Gold - a practical valuation framework and key drivers for 2025

Robin Tsui

APAC Gold Strategist,
State Street Global Advisors

Robin Tsui (CAIA, CA ANZ, HKICPA) is the APAC Gold Strategist at State Street Global Advisors. In his role, Robin supports institutional and intermediary sales efforts in APAC to increase investor awareness of gold as a strategic asset class in investment portfolios. Robin leads the gold business strategy to grow SPDR Gold ETFs' market shares through research, education, product positioning collateral and client engagements. Prior to this role, Robin served as the Interim Head of SPDR ETFs and SPDR Gold Sales Specialist for Hong Kong at State Street Global Advisors.

Prior to joining State Street Global Advisors, Robin held the position of Manager, Investment Product & Research at the World Gold Council. Before joining the World Gold Council, Robin was the lead metals and mining equity research analyst at Bank of China International (BOCI). Prior to joining BOCI, Robin covered the metals & mining industry at Haitong International. Robin began his career at EY in Melbourne, Australia. Robin has 16 years of experience covering commodities.

Robin holds the Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst designation (CAIA) and is both a Chartered Accountant in Australia & New Zealand (CA ANZ) and a Certified Public Accountant in Hong Kong (HKICPA).