

Raghav Kapoor

Co-founder, CEO
SmartKarma

Raghav Kapoor is the Co-Founder and CEO of Smartkarma, where he leads product strategy, technology development, and operational excellence with a singular focus on simplifying and transforming the investment landscape. He believes deeply in the power of technology to solve complex challenges and has built Smartkarma around the core principles of transparency, efficiency, and intelligence.

Prior to founding Smartkarma, Raghav held senior leadership roles across global financial institutions and entrepreneurial ventures. He was Managing Director at Religare Capital Markets from 2010 to 2014, following the successful exit of Aviate Global (Asia), where he was a Founding Partner. Earlier in his career, Raghav was Vice President of Regional Equities Sales at Citigroup, managing and expanding key institutional relationships.

A passionate investor as well as a technologist, Raghav was ranked Asia's #1 investment idea generator from 2011 to 2013, based on a rigorous performance analysis of over a million top investment ideas.

Raghav holds a First Class Honours degree in Computer Science from the University of Cambridge and a Master's degree in Management Science & Engineering from Stanford University.
