

EDITORIAL

A jackpot for hedge funds?

The plethora of headlines about a resurgence for hedge funds should come as no surprise. Their resurgence is a symptom of the wider macroeconomic and financial reset since the Covid-19 pandemic and the end of the cheap money era.

Featured stories from the December 2025 - January 2026 issue of Asia Asset Management

- A “key differentiator”
- Taiwan roundtable focuses on financial hub plan, ETFs and pension reform
- Interview with Tokio Morita, executive director of FinCity.Tokyo
- A S\$5 billion bet
- Pressing matters
- Interview with Songpol Chevapanyaroj, head of Thai pension fund GPF
- Safe haven to digital catalyst
- Asset managers contend with political pressure and evolving rules on ESG
- Eyeing retirement needs

Latest News

India regulator launches agency to verify reporting of investment risk, returns

| 10 December 2025

Regulation: Sebi says finfluencers often lure investors with exaggerated or false returns

Asset owners fret about climate risk, most have sustainable investing practices

| 10 December 2025

Market Access: More than half of asset owners cite financial performance and risk management for implementing sustainable investment practices

China Investment Corporation announces departure of senior executive

| 10 December 2025

Market Access: Zhao Haiying had worked at the sovereign wealth fund since 2007

Analysis: A different league of top asset owners

| 10 December 2025

Analysis: More than half of assets are held by 20 of the top 100 global asset owners

As per the Guidance on Direct Marketing issued by the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data in Hong Kong which took effect on April 1, 2013, we would like to inform you that we intend to continue sending you promotional emails such as newsletters, new promotions and product updates. If you do not wish to receive such emails, please contact us at news@asiaasset.com. For enquiries please contact us at (852) 2547-7331.

If you wish to unsubscribe from our newsletter, click here